This document provides you with key investor information about this fund. It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you understand the nature and the risks of investing in this fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

Global X Wind Energy UCITS ETF (the "Fund"), A sub-fund of Global X ETFs ICAV (the "ICAV")

USD Accumulating Share Class, IE000JNHCBM6

The Fund is managed by Global X Management Company (Europe) Limited (the "Manager").

Objectives and Investment Policy

The investment objective of the Fund is to provide investment results that closely correspond, before fees and expenses, generally to the price and yield performance of the Solactive Wind Energy v2 Index (the "Index"). The Fund is an ESG Fund, classified as an Article 8 fund pursuant to SFDR, and promotes environmental characteristics by focusing on investments in Wind Energy Companies (as defined below) through replicating the Index.

The Index is designed to provide exposure to companies that are positioned to benefit from further advances in the field of wind energy technology. Specifically, the Index will include securities issued by "Wind Energy Companies" as defined by Solactive AG, the Index Provider. "Wind Energy Companies" are those companies that derive at least 50% of their revenues, operating income, or assets from the following business activities:

Wind Energy Systems: Companies involved in development, manufacturing, integration, and/or maintenance of turbine components and turbines that harness energy from the wind and convert it into electrical power.

Wind Power Production: Companies that generate and distribute electricity from wind power.

Wind Energy Technology: Companies that develop commercial and residential infrastructure and systems powered by wind energy, as well as residential and commercial scale batteries for electricity produced from wind power.

Wind Power Integration & Maintenance: Companies that provide engineering and/or advisory services for the installation, maintenance, and/or utilization of wind energy at the residential, commercial, and industrial levels.

For Accumulating Shares, income will be automatically reinvested in the Fund and reflected in the NAV per share.

Investors can buy and sell shares of the Fund on each business day. Business day means a day on which the New York Stock Exchange and London Stock Exchange are open for normal business.

For more information about the investment policy and strategy of the Fund, please refer to the sections entitled "Investment Objective" and "Investment Policy" in the Fund's Supplement.

Risk and Reward Profile

This indicator above is based on historical data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund. The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may change over time. The lowest category does not mean a risk-free investment.

This Fund is in risk category 6 due to the range and frequency of price movements (i.e. the volatility) of the underlying investments referenced by the Fund which may not be a reliable indicator of the future risk profile of the share class.

The Fund offers no capital guarantee or protection.

The Fund may be subject to risks which are not included in the calculation of the risk-reward indicator. Key risk factors include:

Associated Risks Related to Investing in Wind Energy Companies: Wind Energy Companies typically face intense competition, short product lifecycles and potentially rapid product obsolescence. These companies may be significantly affected by fluctuations in energy prices and in the supply and demand of renewable energy, tax incentives, subsidies and other governmental regulations and policies. Investors should take notice of the distinction between implemented government policy based on legislation and less guaranteed commitments which may be aspirational, subject to political risk, and difficult to enforce. These companies are also heavily dependent on intellectual property rights and may be adversely affected by loss or impairment of those rights. Wind Energy Companies may be adversely affected by commodity price volatility, changes in exchange rates, imposition of import controls, availability of certain inputs and materials required for production, depletion of resources, technological developments and labor relations. A decline in the price of conventional energy such as oil and natural gas could have a materially adverse impact on Wind Energy Companies. Renewable energy resources may be highly dependent upon on government policies that support renewable energy generation and enhance the economic viability of owning renewable electric generation assets. Additionally, adverse environmental conditions may cause fluctuations in renewable electric generation and adversely affect the cash flows associated with Wind

Energy Companies.

Market Risk: The risk that the market will go down in value, with the possibility that such changes will be sharp and unpredictable.

Operational Risk (including safekeeping of assets): The Fund and its assets may experience material losses as a result of technology/system failures, human error, policy breaches, and/or incorrect valuation of units. Social, political and economic developments and laws differ between regions. Changes in these may impact the Fund such as any changes that may occur due to the U.K's withdrawal from the EU (Brexit).

Risks associated with the ability to track an index: Transaction costs and other fees and expenses to be borne by the Fund and exchange rate factors where the underlying equities are denominated in a different currency to the Base Currency or currency of any Class of Shares are likely to affect the ability of a Fund to track the performance of the Index.

Liquidity Risk: The Fund may invest in securities which may, due to negative market conditions, become difficult to sell or may need to be sold at an unfavourable price. This may affect the overall value of the Fund.

For more information on risks, please see the sections entitled "Risk Factors" in the ICAV's prospectus and in the Fund's supplement to the ICAV's prospectus.

Charges

The charges you pay are used to pay the costs of running the Fund, including the costs of marketing and distributing the Fund. These charges reduce the potential growth of your investment.

One-off charges taken before or after you invest

Entry Charge	None *
Exit Charge	None *

This is the maximum that might be taken out of your money before it is invested or before the proceeds of your investment are paid out.

Charges taken from the Fund over a year:

Ongoing Charges	0.50% **
-----------------	----------

Charges taken from the fund under certain specific conditions

Performance Fee	None
-----------------	------

The entry and exit charges shown are maximum figures. In some cases you might pay less - you can find this out from your financial adviser.

The ongoing charges figure shown here is based on the total expense ratio of the Fund that the Investment Manager has agreed to cap. The Manager gives a commitment to respect the published figure shown and to discharge any excess amounts out of its own assets for all other fees and expenses over this cap which may arise.

The ongoing charge figure excludes performance fees and portfolio transaction costs, except in the case of an entry/exit charge paid by the Fund when buying or selling units in another collective investment undertaking.

* Secondary market investors (Investors dealing on a stock exchange) may pay fees charged by their stock brokers. Such charges, if any, can be obtained from stock brokers. Authorised participants dealing directly with the Fund will pay related transaction costs related to their subscriptions and redemptions.

 To the extent the Fund undertakes securities lending, the Fund will receive 87% of the associated revenue generated from securities lending activities and the remaining 13% will be retained by the securities lending agent (representing the attendant direct and indirect operational costs and fees of the securities lending). As securities lending does not increase the costs of running the fund, this has been excluded from the ongoing charges.

Please refer to the “Fees, Costs and Expenses” section of the ICAV’s Prospectus and “Fees and Expenses” section of the Supplement to the Prospectus for further detail on charges and fees for the relevant share classes.
